All civil servants are Guardians of Democracy!

As a civil servant, you help turn our democratic rights into reality. Whether you work at a desk, in a court-room, on a postal bike, on a train or behind the scenes, your work is essential to a functioning society.

GUARDIANS OF DEMOCRACY

Behind every democratic right is a civil servant ready to defend it. Learn more at st.org/guardians

What makes you a Guardian of Democracy?

- How do you defend democracy in your everyday work?
- What is your special strength when it comes to protecting democracy?
- If your job didn't exist, what would society lose?
- How is democracy affected if you're unable to do your job?
- How does your work help build trust in society?
- What would help you become even stronger in defending democracy?
